Office of Legislative Counsel

Tuesday - 4 March 1958

Talked with the office of Congressman Prince Preston with respect to a possible meeting with the Director. They called back and said Mr. Preston preferred to make this arrangement in the latter part of April. It was agreed that we would call at a later date to arrange this.

At the request of [redacted], Mr. Al Westphal of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee met with [redacted] and Warner. Mr. Westphal had been attempting to secure information concerning a proposed visit of [redacted]'s son to the United States. [redacted]

[redacted]. The entire background was explained to Westphal so he could appropriately handle the many inquiries that were being raised. It was agreed that if necessary he would brief Walter Judd appropriately in order to seek advice as to how to deal with other inquiries. Mr. Westphal will advise the Agency of his conversation with Mr. Judd.

On the basis of a standing request from Mr. Herschel Clesner of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Patents and Copyrights, two translated documents were forwarded to him; The Experience Gained in the Work of the Commission on Inventions and Rationalization Administration of the Far East Hydrometeorological Service and Stories of Innovations by A. Godyayev.
